

Weekly Homework

Monday	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Read at least 15 minutes. Have grown-up sign reading log.2. Spelling - Choose a spelling activity to practice this week's word list from those on the weekly grid sent home3. Math - finish math classwork not done at school * A nightly math sheet will begin going home in January.
Tuesday	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Read at least 15 minutes. Have grown-up sign reading log.2. Spelling - Choose a spelling activity to practice this week's word list from those on the weekly grid sent home3. Math - finish math classwork not done at school * A nightly math sheet will begin going home in January.
Wednesday	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Read at least 15 minutes. Have grown-up sign reading log.2. Spelling - Choose a spelling activity to practice this week's word list from those on the weekly grid sent home3. Math - finish math classwork not done at school * A nightly math sheet will begin going home in January.
Thursday	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Read at least 15 minutes. Have grown-up sign reading log.2. Spelling - Choose a spelling activity to practice this week's word list from those on the weekly grid sent home -  There will be a spelling test on FRIDAY.3. Math - finish math classwork not done at school * A nightly math sheet will begin going home in January.
Friday	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Read for at least 15 minutes at least ONE time over the weekend. Have a grown-up fill out your reading log.2. HAVE FUN! 😊

 Take your time and be proud of your work! Write NEATLY!

 Any homework that is not complete OR is sloppy will be done during your free time. There will also be a $1 fine for EACH assignment not done.